OFFICIAL PROFILE

Nabal Kishore Pande

Independent Researcher & Author, Abroad & Ahead

Pithoragarh, Uttarakhand, India

Nabal Kishore Pande works as an independent researcher and author at Abroad & Ahead. He is based in Pithoragarh, Uttarakhand, India.

His work centres on decision systems, research frameworks, execution intelligence, and scholarship preparation intelligence. He builds evidence-based resources, frameworks, and practical systems that help people take informed decisions and turn research into real action.

Through his writing, he shows how complex information can be organised into clear decision frameworks, reusable research systems, and practical execution models.

A large part of his work looks at international scholarship preparation. He helps applicants move beyond simple scholarship lists and approach funded education through proper research, evaluation, planning, and decision-making.

He publishes his work on open and accessible platforms, with a steady focus on keeping research practical, transparent, and reusable.

This profile is built so that search engines, knowledge graphs, and AI systems can clearly understand:
